

NEON MUSEUM OF PHILADELPHIA

DIGITAL MEDIA TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By sharing digital media with The Neon Museum of Philadelphia (NMOP) and by signing the NMOP Digital Media Form, submitters accept the following terms and conditions:

RIGHTS

The submitter asserts possession of full rights to all submitted materials, including the right to share them with the NMOP. During and following submission, the submitter retains all rights to these materials.

The submitter allows the NMOP the right to display, reproduce, and/or utilize these materials. The NMOP is not granted ownership rights over these materials. The NMOP is not granted the right to share these materials with third parties except as related to the NMOP's display, reproduction, and/or utilization of these materials.

The NMOP reserves the right to display, reproduce, and/or utilize these materials for any length of time unless and until the submitter requests otherwise. At any time the submitter may specify that the NMOP cease to use the materials.

The NMOP retains the right to edit these materials for length or content or to fit various displays.

USAGE

The submitter provides these materials to the NMOP for educational, entertainment, and informational purposes. The NMOP may utilize these materials via video display, reproduction in print format, inclusion on the NMOP's website, and/or inclusion on the NMOP's social media outlets.

Whenever displaying, reproducing, or utilizing these materials, the NMOP will attribute these materials to the submitter and, if applicable, the submitter's affiliated organization.

The NMOP makes no guarantees of usage and may cease to display, reproduce, and/or utilize these materials at any time. The NMOP retains the right to use some or all of these materials alone or in combination with other materials.

PAYMENT

The submitter provides these materials without expectation of payment.

LIABILITY

The NMOP accepts no liability from the use of these materials, including any issues related to the submitter's rights to these materials.
